It is a part of the Sherwood School District, which also contains Sherwood Middle School. The school received a Blue Ribbon School award in 1985-86. Academics In 2008, 82% of the school's seniors received their high school diploma. Of 49 students, 13 graduated, 21 dropped out, and 15 were still in high school the following year. In May 2009, the Oregon Department of Education named Sherwood High a "School Improvement Team of the Year" award recipient for its own efforts to improve student achievement and graduation rates. The school received the honor in recognition of the increase in student retention from 92.6% in 2007 to 98.2% in 2009. This increase in retention brought an increase in the percentage of students testing into the proficient range in English from 4.8% in 2007 to 15.1% in 2009.
